Description of Amendment:

This is to incorporate the following:

Clarification: The Last Date and Time to receive Vendor's Questions were on September 29, 2026 at 8:26 AM CST. There will be no other vendor questions accepted at this time, because the Close Date and Time will remain the same.

Question: The packets say machinery is restricted to rubber-tracked vehicles. At the walkthrough we understood that rubber tires or rubber tracks are acceptable, with no steel tracks or steel wheels. Please confirm the written rule.

Answer: Yes--This was discussed at the Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting.

Question: Please identify or confirm the approved entrances, staging areas, and creek/drainage crossings for each unit.

Answer: Will happen as project develops as it is dependent on weather.

Question: If one contractor is awarded multiple units, does each unit receive its own Notice to Proceed and 90-day completion clock? Can separately awarded units be performed sequentially?

Answer: Yes as long as time allows for projects be completed within the designated time frame of completed no later than May 15th. - discussed during the Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting.

Question: If fire danger, weather, wet ground, or a Forest Service closure stops work, does that extend the 90-day completion period?

Answer: Yes those days do not count against the 90 days - discussed during the Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting.

Question: Are progress payments/invoices allowed by accepted acreage or milestone, or is payment only after final completion of each unit? We understand the ODWC Contractor's Invoice form—not letterhead—must be used.

Answer: Yes.

Question: Please confirm the required vehicle/commercial-auto coverage limits and endorsements, especially for a pickup used to tow equipment, along with the required general liability and workers' compensation documents.

Answer: Please refer to the Bid Package.

Question: Please confirm the exact post-award, pre-Notice to Proceed documents: COIs/endorsements, schedule, equipment/crew list, subcontractor information, BABA compliance, or anything else.

Answer: Please refer to the Bid Package.

Question: Is a DocuSign electronic signature acceptable on each bid-form signature page when the completed packets are returned by email, or do you require wet-signed scanned originals?

Answer: DocuSign is acceptable.

Question: Please confirm there is no bid bond, performance bond, payment bond, or SAM.gov registration required for these four solicitations.

Answer: There is no bid bond as discussed during the Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting.
No, to the SAM.gov registration.

Question: For 70N, please confirm the practical bid ceiling is $100,000.

Answer: There is no bid bond as discussed during the Mandatory Pre-Bid Meeting.
