

The purpose of Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation's (ODWC) fan page (Facebook) and other social media outlets is to inform users about the mission of ODWC and to share information. We encourage people to share their comments, ideas and concerns. We do ask that they keep comments and wall posts clean and respectful. ODWC reserves the right to remove, hide, delete or block comments, people and/or pages which do not comply. Anyone sharing for public consumption any comments, photos or videos via posts or comments on social media administered by the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation agrees to waive copyright limitations for said publicly-shared content and gives ODWC the right to republish or share any posts, comments or photos appearing on any of its affiliated Facebook pages, for any legitimate reason as determined by ODWC. This commenting policy will be shared with the public in appropriate places on social media.
